

SECONDARY PDHPE TEACHER

Redfield College is an independent Catholic boys' school (Year 2 to Year 12) teaching the Catholic faith with a unique, personalised education program. Located in Dural, northwest of Sydney, the College was founded in 1986 by the PARED Foundation on the principle that parents are the primary educators and that schools exist to offer parents every support. Redfield College places importance on the development of virtues seen as good habits and helps develop these virtues so students are better able to make the right choices in life. Redfield College currently has an exciting opportunity for a suitably qualified PDHPE Teacher to join their Secondary School in a permanent full-time role. The role commences in Term 1, 2023, and requires confidence in the following key skills and experience:

- In addition to NESA accreditation, suitable tertiary qualifications and prior experience teaching PDHPE across all years (Year 7 to Year 12)
- Demonstrable experience in improving teaching, learning and classroom practices
- Ability to oversee the delivery of PDHPE curricula and knowledge of recent developments in PDHPE curriculum areas and the NESA syllabus, assessment, and reporting requirements
- Demonstrable ability to integrate technology into teaching and learning.

Personally, you will demonstrate:

- Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills, with demonstrated ability to establish a professional rapport with students, staff, and the school community at all levels
- Display the highest ethical and professional behaviour and standards when working with students, parents, and school staff members

- Ability to build a unified and effective team
- Ability to introduce and execute ideas to enhance our Secondary school
- Ability to manage pastoral care issues with effective discussion and processes with staff, students, and parents
- Support the values and ethos of the school
- Strong organisational and time management skills, with an ability to meet deadlines

To be considered for this role, please send your application to the Headmaster, Mr. Matthew Aldous at hr@pared.edu.au and is supported by:

- A cover letter addressing the selection criteria and stating why you wish to work as a PDHPE Teacher within Redfield College
- An updated CV, confirming your skills, education, qualifications, and work history
- A list of at least two referees with contact details.

Please note that the successful applicant will be required to maintain a current NSW Working with Children Check and current NESAs accreditation.
